

Yes, Virginia, there is a Candy Heaven! It's Sweet Temptations!

If you have ever dreamed of sweets galore and confectionary choices that take you back to your childhood then head on over to Sweet Temptations.

Sweet Temptations is a candy wonderland, chock full of delicious, tempting sweets to satisfy the most discriminating "sweet tooth". The walls are covered with bins of bulk candies – grab a bag or basket and stock up on traditional toffees, Smarties, wine gums or chocolates. The boutique stocks 14 flavours of Jelly Bellies including a special "49 variety" assortment. There are chocolate Jujubes, Licorice Allsorts and dozens of other varieties of candies, including famous "oldies" like jawbreakers.

There is also a "No Sugar" section with hard candies, gummies, chocolate bars and "jubes" made with artificial sweeteners, for customers with dietary restrictions.

The store is co-owned by sisters Deborah Lawrence and Julie Trudeau. They shop the world for delectable confections and want to bring unique international flavours to their customers.

They have a large selection of imported chocolate bars from England, including Cadbury, Nestlé and Fry's. They also stock famous German chocolate Ritter Sports Bars and Dutch Droste bars and pastilles. For Christmas, they carry imported Scottish shortbread, chocolate liqueur candies from England and decorative edible ornaments for Christmas trees.

The boutique loves doing themes for their candy and has special gift packages for expressing thanks, conveying get well wishes and birthdays, complete with Loot Bags. Themed containers like metal lunch boxes and toy cars are popular now, states Deborah Lawrence.

The store's recipe for success is simple. They provide service that is "as sweet as the candy". From corporate gift baskets, hostess gifts and table favours to a truffle-filled flower vase, Sweet Temptations is bound to take you to "candy heaven."
